GIPPSLAND MIND COMMUNITY MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES

Mind supports people with mental illness in their recovery, to help them live well in the community, with or without symptoms. We work with people who have a range of often complex issues resulting from mental illness, and their families and carers, and have been doing this work for over 30 years in Victoria.

Gippsland Service team

There are three services available in the Gippsland region; services are funded by the Commonwealth Government and the Department of Human Services.

Services that we offer are

Insight

What the program aims to do

The program has a Home Based Outreach service and Day Programs. The outreach service works with individuals who require support maintaining their mental health by working towards maintaining a safe environment, learning new skills, gaining greater access to the community, forming new relationships and increasing independence.

The Day program offers a variety of activities to enhance socialisation, learning new skills and community access. Programs on offer range from Music, Cooking, Art, Fun Friday’s and Men’s and Women’s groups.

Who can access Insight

Insight provides service to people with low prevalence disorders or people seriously affected by mental health who are currently case managed or clinically supported and between the ages of 16 – 64, who reside in the Latrobe or Baw Baw shires.

How to access the program

The referral process is usually initiated by telephone. Enquiries can be made by a mental health service, other service providers, self-referral, a family member, friend or worker. Referral forms are provided for completion by professional support and the applicant and applicants are required to attend an assessment interview before being offered a place at Insight.
